Welcome

Dear Supporter,

Welcome to the 7 Yards film screening! After nearly two years in production we are able to present this film due to your continued support through donations!

This screening is a show of Chris & Emily's experience and love; we are excited to share this with you.

The proceeds of your tickets will go toward Fotolanthropy's continued support of inspiring people across the nation by sharing their stories through the creation of influential films and photography.

Best,
